

It seems that there were a number of little consolation parties Wednesday evening composed of the men who did not get bids for the New-house dinner. And the men who got them were a surprise to themselves and to each other. There was a little blunder in the eastern part of town who missed her cavalier and knew not the place thereof till she read the papers next day. The dinner was a joy, the trimmings alone being well worth the sacrifice made by the girls.

It is a real secret as yet, but there will be a number of gorgeously beautiful complexions on exhibition before long among society's full-blown roses. The girls should be looking to their colors (literally) or the older class will be ahead of them. The full particulars are not yet ready for publication.

Some of the girls are to take dainty little note books to the "Ham show" tomorrow evening to make a few notes of the gown worn by the two gorgeous beauties. The leading modistes of the town have spent sleepless nights and a few days as well concocting marvels of their art to clothe the ravishing forms of the party-principals in the feminine roles. The girls who are accustomed to selecting their own styles from Vogue and dazzling all eyes with the success thereof expect to turn green with envy.

A solitary horseman is seen frequently these long pleasant evenings wending his way slowly along Brigham street and gazing straight ahead as if he feared his decision might be hastened if he should cast a glance to right or left. He is said to have in mind a great matrimonial project. These bright days are not wasted at the Country club, although the social programme is not yet in force. One frequently sees the most delightful spots occupied by an appreciative audience, and sometimes judging by the ardor expressed, an orator also.

The immediate prospect for society events is not great. The present week will not be a busy one except in a small way. Several large affairs are planned for the week after, however, among them being one or two elaborate teas.

There are some well defined rumors to the effect that the engagement will shortly be announced of a certain belle who has been visiting in the east and an especially desirable stranger from the far country.

The visit of the Downeys from Denver, while only a flying one, has given their friends an opportunity to greet them once more. There can be no doubt that Major and Mrs. George F. Downey are just as popular in Salt Lake as they were in the days when they were residents here.

Jo Rubb has managed to keep the matter very quiet and his friends were wonderfully amazed yesterday morning to read in a local paper that Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rubb and Miss Helen would leave for Chicago. Considering the fact that the colonel is in Manila, there could be no one but Jo and the girl interested. Mrs. Rubb will take Miss Helen to Chicago tonight and about the end of August she and Gerald Sweet will be married. Both of the young people have a big crowd of admirers here who will be sorry to lose the nuptials.

MUSIC A FEATURE IN SOCIAL EVENTS

The past week has been filled with fine musical events, which partook of a social nature as well. The week opened with an artistic studio recital given by Mrs. Anna O. Swenson, at which little Marion Hooper, who made her debut in public, was the sensation of the evening. Mrs. Ira H. Lewis entertained Wednesday with a musical programme rendered by local artists; and Thursday evening the Orpheus club provided a treat for music lovers. The house looked like a first night audience, and the Chamade trio, excellent as their work was, had reason to feel themselves complimented by the quality, if not the numbers, of the audience.

A pretty children's party was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. C. S. Vaden, for her little daughter Margaret and her son Edna. The house and grounds were filled during the afternoon with a merry throng of little people, who enjoyed games on the lawn and sports of all kinds to their hearts' content. The serving of refreshments and the decorations were all in dainty pink and white, and low tables and tiny chairs were used. Mrs. Vaden was assisted in caring for the guests by Mrs. Henry P. Henderson, Miss Helen Gillespie, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss Hanson and Miss Aileen MacLean.

Miss Mary Louise Anderson invited a few friends to an informal luncheon yesterday, to meet her guest, Mrs. Frank W. Jennings. The table was decorated in white and green, white lilies being used. The guests, besides Mrs. Jennings, were: Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, Mrs. W. Montague Perry, Mrs. O. W. Bowers and Mrs. E. O. Howard.

Robert N. Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Park, who will graduate during the week from Stanford, has been especially honored in his class during the past year. He was recently elected to the Sigma Sigma fraternity society and has been offered some excellent positions on the faculty of the university. He has been a member of the geological society, an honor usually reserved for the faculty and post graduates alone. Mr. Park will accompany his mother home at the end of the coming week.

Miss Louise Rowe and Dr. Ronald A. Greene were quietly married yesterday afternoon. No one but the relatives were present. Dr. and Mrs. Greene will shortly be at home to friends at 132 North State street.

Mrs. Annie Adams and Mrs. Pitt will be at home to their friends next Thursday afternoon at the home of the latter, 323 South Main street, from 3 till 5 o'clock. No invitations will be issued.

Mrs. H. Stevens Lyon of North Adams, Mass., is in the city, the guest for a time of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Vaden.

Mrs. J. C. Armstrong of Ogden spent yesterday in the city with friends. A pupils' festival is to be given by Mrs. A. D. Melvin and Professor George E. Skelton, Tuesday evening. Invitations are to be sent out.

Rowland Hall Girl Does Well on Stage.

MISS IRENE ECKIS.

Miss Irene Eckis, a graduate of Rowland Hall, Salt Lake, is winning praise for her work on the stage. During the past winter she has been with Frank Moore in "The Middleman," and it is as Felicia Unifrayville in that play that she appears in the above picture. She has recently accepted a part in "Camille" with Henry Miller and Margaret Anglin, and her work, although light, is well spoken of.

Miss Eckis takes the stage name of Helen Ingraham. She left Rowland Hall last year to take up theatrical work. She will be remembered by friends here as a little girl in short gowns, but friends who know of her histrionic talent are confident of her success.

Miss Clint Young assisted the little hostess in entertaining.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Pinkerton announce the engagement of their daughter, Nellie, to Edward Moore. The marriage will take place some time in June.

Miss Fannie Breeden is entertaining Miss Helen Wenger and Miss Frances Joyce, of Ogden.

Mrs. Charles Post will leave Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Missouri. She will be joined there by Miss Edna Bailey and together they will visit the fair.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Price, who are in Ogden, where Lieutenant Price is on recruiting duty, spent a few days in town the past week and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte.

Judge and Mrs. E. L. Smith will entertain at a dinner today, for Miss Louise Morris and George Weller.

Mrs. Arthur Bird entertained at a luncheon for a few friends yesterday at the Country club.

Miss Gertrude Mayer will entertain at a party Tuesday evening for her guests, Miss Adams and Miss Little.

Miss Mary Louise Anderson entertains at a buffet luncheon today for about a dozen guests. The events of yesterday and today are the beginning of a series of social affairs to be given by Miss Anderson.

The invitations are out for a recital to be given by a number of the pupils of Professor McClellan next Wednesday evening at the Theatre.

Mrs. F. A. Grant will be down from Seattle during the week and will be a guest during her stay at the home of Mrs. R. Savage, 1899 Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb, who are now at the Fifth East hotel, will be at home in their apartments in the Miller Hotel after June 1.

The Reviewers' club will give its annual breakfast in honor of the president Wednesday at the University club.

Miss Clair Eldredge and Charles Hollingsworth of Ogden will spend the day in the city visiting friends.

The engagement of Miss Emma Jeremy to Walter Wright is announced. The marriage will take place in June.

Miss Lillian Oliver will give a piano recital at the studio with a number of her pupils the first week in June.

Miss Rohman, Mrs. Zina H. Smoot and Miss Brett were the guests of honor at a dinner party given by Mrs. W. Cluff at her residence, 201 Douglas avenue, Friday evening last.

Poster J. Curtis returned yesterday from Chicago, having completed his third year in Hahnemann Medical college.

Miss Fern Smoot of Provo is spending commencement week of the U. of U. the guest of Miss Maud McConnell.

Little Emma Smoot was the hostess at an entertaining birthday party given at the apartments of her mother, Mrs. Zina H. Smoot, in South Main street, on Saturday. A dainty luncheon was served and the guests were entertained with music, games and recitations in the afternoon and evening.

WALKER'S STORE SPECIAL

A BEAUTY SHOW OF NEGLIGEEES AND HOUSE GOWNS AT A GREAT SAVING OF PRICE

Monday morning we shall show the largest, most varied and thoroughly worthy lot of negligees, house gowns and kimonoas it has been our good fortune to buy. There are more than one hundred models of both foreign and domestic kinds, typifying the newest and most approved ideas of fashion makers. In fact, it would seem that every possible artistic arrangement of shimmering silks, laces, chiffons and other dainty fabrics had been employed in their making. Never before at one time were so many of these pretty "home wear" garments—so dear to every woman's heart—gathered together in our store.

Besides the beauty of the garments there is the beauty of the small price at which we sell them. Not a single one is marked TWO-THIRDS ITS WORTH and many LITTLE OVER HALF. They vary from about $4.50 to $50.00 each.

Nothing should keep you from Walker's Store on Monday—there is too much of interest and profit to miss. See windows, entire front annex where some of them are on display.
